Standing for a political party - 2 & 3

- Complete the two forms in full
- The certificate of authorisation must include the name of the political party and the description that may be used. This description must match that used on the nomination form. This form is signed by an authorised representative of the party.
- The request for a party emblem form must give the name of the emblem that the candidate wishes to use. Please use the reference number/description given on the EC website. This form is signed by the candidate.

Date received	Time received	Initials	No.

2 Local government election in England Certificate of authorisation

To accompany the nomination of a candidate standing on behalf of a registered political party. (Note: candidates standing on behalf of two or more parties require a certificate from each party and each must allow the same registered joint description to be used).

This certificate must be issued by the registered Nominating Officer of the party or by a person authorised to sign on their behalf.

This certificate authorises the candidate to use a specific registered description or the name of the party as registered with the Electoral Commission, or to use 'any registered description or the party name as registered with the Electoral Commission'.

This authorised party name or description can then be included by the candidate on the nomination form. It is this which will appear as their description on the ballot paper.
