FRIENDS OF ST. PETER'S IGHTHAM

WHO ARE WE?

Everyone who makes up our community:

- Ightham families, couples & singles... all ages
- Residents, visitors...connecting those who've moved away
- Local businesses, trades & farms

WHAT ARE WE?

An independent charity, working with St. Peter's Church. Our aims:

- to support the Church
- to participate in Community activities
- to help you make new friends, &
- to socialise with, & help, each other!

PARTICIPATE IN VILLAGE EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

We're planning an exciting programme for all to enjoy:

(As we emerge from current restrictions, & when we can socialise again!)

2021

Summer:

- BBQ party in the Churchyard (sponsored)
- Teddy Bears Picnic (with Zip wire)
- Ightham Olympics (Our version of Tokyo!)

Autumn:

- Cheese & Wine, & more in G&D (featuring local produce)
- Daffodil planting (900 bulbs for 900 years of history)
- Christmas Tree Festival

Over Winter:

We're launching a series of special interest groups; ideas so far...

- Dog 'Rambling'
- Local artists
- Early Ightham Memories

2022

Celebrating our heritage – 900 years of St. Peter's history

Spring:

- The Lost Gardens of Ightham
- Bell ringing & Church history
- Easter Egg Hunt

Summer:

- Coxcombe Village Fair
- Forest Meditation
- Live Music Concert
